

Dystopia

Keep walking - nothing to see here
Only corpses landed on the pier

The fear
In the air there's a courtesy

Can you hear them coming, They're near

Race towards the glow
Make haste
To stumble on

Your life
Long emergency
Restless dead upon your heel
Beyond the nightmare
Perfect entropy

The only way to be free

*Is that sweat upon your brow?
This is but an undercurrent,
A hush before the show*

*This magic of mundane
Let it swathe you*

In ambrosial Luscious, blissful pain

Endings tangled - sparkle And grasp at straws

Deprived neurons misfire

Emergency Room

Great sundown light to be out Again you seem to question and pout

I assign you to go home
And drop your stupid act

Sleep over it
Don't nourish it
Just eat it and be back

One distant landslide
Will break this small mind
All hands on handguns
All faith undone

You're out of touch boy
You are deluded

Empty my pockets
Don't have me included

We can't deceive you
But these pills sure can

Now we will leave you Don't do anything rash

Patiently fixed on all his loathing Takes but a morning to fix if only You'd stop the spin
But round n round you go

Now see your tiny mind again dwells on Nightmares and rage a fury that beckons
I got issues myself to dispose of

A viral

*Vaguely familiar
Like landslides
On distant hilltops*

Secrets of the deep

The obsidian night,
Stares straight into your eyes
Of brumal desire

And just like you I'm too afraid
To reveal all the pain

Affections fade
To shades of grey

Would you dream with me,
Secrets of the deep

I know that you lust
For the darkness

Without misery

We feel so hollow

And the shadows are calling

I can't remember why
We lit up the sky

While everyone is drowning
In virtue and devotion

Truth remains in The blackest light

"Of bewitching thread
Figures veiled
Trapped in frozen state,
The cold It emanates

Reign of Winter

Do you remember when Back when times were dire

Your sanguine taste so sweet,
When you were mine

Your only fault was to trust me,
The horror unseen

Still I regret nothing,
Thirst never-ending

In my heart
Reign of winter

Outcast from light
We've been denied

Nor ear can hear
Nor tongue can tell

A dead language decayed

Oh

I long for the time
When the tone of your voice
Would ruin me — Erase me.

Erase the agony
Of this freezing flame.

In our hearts
Reign of winter

Outcast from light

We've been denied

*Nor ear can hear
Nor tongue can tell*

A dead language decayed

Pale Bridge of the Moon

Daylight dies - the shindig's over Frantic hunt for sentiment

Buried deep inside
The scent of prey is getting stronger

Everlasting craving
For a universe that's never pure

I hope you see it now
For this there is no cure

After all the shit we've done Look at what have we become

Grey bright as day
Will show us the way
Through the waters' darkened veil

Enchanting tune
Bridge of the moon
Guiding us to the truth

Our wayward path it will not last Therefore, we cannot stay

Distant stars
Heralds of verse

The twilight
Will lift this curse

Past time and space
Mirage of grace

Stormrider

1,2,3,4 - listoff

Dash of wolfsbane Touch of tallow

Crush them bones Drink the marrow

The broth is made of virgin tears

*Read the recipe
In a fever dream*

Woke up laughing Hysterically

I know - it's all so shallow

To be born, again,
With fear and wonder

Rise
Rise above it all

Flaming horizons
Far beyond

Ride
Ride on silver light

Tonight is ours
Reveal the power

Raging spirit of the storm

"Es I endi, enqui dies"

Rise up
Release the past

Thy kingdom come
Be free at last

The fire you seek is found within

It feels so right
Oh, Crone of the night

The burning cold of truth inside

I know - it's all so shallow

To be born again
With fear and wonder

I am endowed

With a piercing hunger

*Every single day
It burns Stronger*

~~AAAA~~

The setting sun,
Primed a hunger

Primates with matches Buried within

You talk of love
Well, it's a bargain

World without pride
Disillusioned and unsatisfied

Behind
Closed doors

As the curtains fall
So does your gleaming code

Let me show you how Let me satisfy
Let me help you
To brake your vows

Dreams of fiery bliss
Tonight unfold
Let me melt the cold

Have the violent wind
Take hold of your skin

Bare-naked soul
For me to own

The pain you feel
Is only illusory

As I come inside

The day has died

Let me show you how
Let me satisfy
Let me help you
To brake your vows

Dreams of fiery bliss
Tonight unfold
With this burning kiss
We depart from the cold

A-rated
On your knees
I am divinity
Worship me
I reign supreme

Worlds without end

Through corridors
Of ashen portraits crumbling down

I bow to the snake
As it devours itself

Within the halls
That echo of extinction

I've seen
The throne of god
In a row of clones
From broken bones

Unchain desire
With a carnal rhyme

Undying shapes enframe

We dance to cherish the flame

A mere resource
For the one to come
A building block Segment to carve from

Specs of dust
In the dark

Unchain desire
With a carnal rhyme

Undying shapes enframe

I witness
The fading
Of the pale blue light

*And proclaim the continuum

Terminus

I need to rip my eyes out, to brace for the coming storm to root in your soil and weave an illusion of might and more

the lightning caresses gently

scent so searing enchanting

succumb the terminus expire, forfeit the spark

suffer me now

as the tidal waves crash upon
this fathomless void
and be forever lost,

suffer me now
as the wreck of harvest,
this barren soil
let it be no more

a pulsing fury
of unknown origin,

enslaving
a crumbling dominion,

a grotesque vision,
a rendition mesmerizing
this rapture
this soulless condition,

suffer me now
this fathomless void

suffer me now
this barren soil
let it be no more
